

Exciting Short Courses & Library Offers by BRITISH COUNCIL

MPS has received invitation for its students to participate in 2 summer school programmes, British Council has organized each with 10 days duration with intensive focus on development of writing, reading, speaking and listening skill of the English language for the students in safe, interactive and lively classroom environment to make language learning with fun and interest. It is a sincere effort to enhance fluency in language including vocabulary enhancement, learning correct pronunciation along with fluency and accuracy in language, besides development of creative thinking, social and other life skills among students.

Students would also be able to make good use of council's library.

These two summer school programmes have been themed as Explorers and Mediamagic are a mix of games, projects, drama and communicative activities conducted in pairs and small groups in class activities.

Explorers – Through a virtual trip around the world, the children will get to explore different cultures, develop language skills and build confidence through a lesson about one city each day.

Mediamagic – This fascinating theme will have the children explore communication channels such as the radio, television and the internet. They will learn how to write blogs, create an advertisement and even explore ways of using the internet (wisely of course!).

The fee for each summer school is Rs. 15,100/-; Venue - British Council, 17, Kasturba Gandhi Marg, New Delhi-110001
