

National Constitution Day

Mayur Public School took immense pride and honour to celebrate “National Constitution Day”, also known as “Samvidhan Divas”. A day which holds a special significance in the heart of every Indian.

Adhering to the guidelines given by department of education & Literacy, the preamble of the constitution was read by all students. There were quiz & essay competitions on the subject of the constitution of India. The class teachers gave speech on the importance of ‘Constitution’ which enlightened the young learners and encouraged them to become responsible citizens in future and fulfil their responsibilities with utmost dedication and honesty.

It was a matter of delight to see young learners showing inquisitiveness and enthusiasm towards the topic. The Principal, Mrs. Shakuntla Rawat encashed the opportunity and shared her views about freedom and the relevance of having own constitution.

The event ended with great success witnessing whole hearted participation, vigour and joy of the students pledging to contribute in the development and progress of their nation.
